

Weekly Citizen

DISTRICT COURT

The Report of the United States Grand Jury.

(From the Daily, Oct. 24.)
In the case of the United States vs. Joseph Hemesley and B. P. Schuster, contempt as jurors, on plaintiff's motion for continuance was granted until the next term of the court.

E. L. Mann, brother of the Mann boys, the successful gardeners of old town, is in the city from S. Africa.

On the evening of the 22d Judge Medden, united in marriage W. H. Johnson and Mrs. Vivian Garret de Garen.

G. W. Clarke and Bernard Remond, St. Louis drummers who made regular trips to the southwest, are at the Armory to day.

Aloys Jacobs, known throughout the southwest as "Horse Show" Jacobs, came down from the north last night. He sells "Horse Show" tobacco.

Mrs. R. Leppmann, mother of the superintendent of the Albuquerque street railway, arrived last night from Fremont, Ohio, and registered at the San Felipe.

D. R. Payne, Pueblo, S. M. Culom Jr., Chicago; C. W. Finney, W. G. Eells, Louis Kaysor, of Philadelphia, were the guests of the Commercial clubs yesterday. Remond.

P. E. Nelson, who has been superintendent of railroads on the Atlantic & Pacific at Williams for the past few years, resigned his position the other day, and will be connected with the San Antonio & Aransas Railroad in Texas.

At El Paso, the body of a murdered man was discovered in his river back Wednesday, and five men are in jail ready to stand trial. It is thought that the United States of America, the people believe, are among the principals in the murder.

There is a rumor in the southwest that Trinidad, Col., that Ed. C. Brown, Jr., was murdered here. Mrs. Edward George H. Miles, in New York home, asking particularly about a son who was sent to her by Mr. D. P. Robinson, said she had no knowledge.

The item is probably true. We can charge that Ed. C. Brown, Jr., is his position as treasurer of the Atlantic & Pacific, he became a vice-president for D. P. Robinson, and this Mr. Robinson was found at the end of his life.

We thank our Home for the courtesy which we received yesterday, and for the services and efforts made in the press, to expose the wrongdoing of the railroad.

H. U. Mudge, division superintendent of the Santa Fe road, left from San Mateo in his private car N. 25. Mr. Mudge keeps his road bed in fine condition, and the men under him speak in praise of his ability as a first-class manager. The centenarian family reside in north Albuquerque.

Chas. F. Bailey, the joint ticket agent at the depot, has been in an extremely happy frame of mind the past few days. His wife presented him with a small gold watch on the third anniversary of their marriage, which occurred the other day, and of course Charley shows his present to all his friends.

It was a cool day at the residence of Thos. F. Kehler yesterday afternoon, he being to the highest bidder nearly 10,000 pounds. R. Leckie bought 6,000 pounds, the balance being purchased by Eisenman Bros., George Oberne & Co. and O. M. Hause & Co.

There were eight bidders besides the local dealers, two were from Las Vegas and one from B. W. The total brought from $11,772 to $17,29 per hundred pounds.

No Politics Discussed.

Perfecto Armijo asserted in interviews in the Democrat that politics is having a great deal to do in connecting his name with the Wooton assassination, and he accused Justice Denham of bringing the matter before the public. Justice Denham denied the accusation, and this morning he and Mr. Armijo went out to Simpson's work near Tijeracion to face the men who were alleged to have told Mr. Armijo that politics were discussed over the dead body of Wooton. Thus O'Malley and W. M. McCleery, who remained up with the body in company with Justice Denham, were seen and told Mr. Armijo that no one conversed about politics that evening.

Embalmer Gitter, who stayed up a portion of the night, corroborates what the gentlemen state above. There was one of the party, Fred Vireliz, who stated that he told Mr. Armijo that politics were discussed that evening, but that he was drunk when he made the remark and was now sorry for it. Justice Denham states that Vireliz was at Wooton's cabin with the party, but was asleep most all the time.

The "Midgets."

It is a well-known fact that this is definitely an age of organization, when almost every day witnesses the forming of some new club or order. The latest, however, that has reached our ears is an order in this city known as "The Midgets." It is said to be composed entirely of young ladies, with headquarters somewhere on the High-lands. Whether their object be simply that of pleasure or sweet charity is not known to us, and just what consideration, earthly or otherwise, led them to choose the name they have, is still far from our minds, unless it is intended to be suggestive of the size of its members.

A Fitting Appointment.

News comes from Washington that Brevet Lieut. Col. Lewis J. Johnson, 24th infantry, has been appointed Indian agent at San Carlos, Arizona, to succeed Capt. Buell, U. S. A., recently ordered to his regiment. Col. Johnson has commanded the military post of San Carlos for nearly three years, coming in contact with the Indians constantly, and is familiar with their habits and understands how to manage and keep contentment among them; and the people of Arizona and New Mexico will be glad that an officer so well qualified to perform the duties has been appointed. He is an officer of experience and mature judgment, and served with distinction in the war of the Rebellion, coming out with the well-earned brevet rank of brigadier general of volunteers.

and friends, are in the city, on the return to their home at San Pedro, accompanied by Mrs. Dr. Lucy, of Clifton, Arizona. Mr. McLaughlin, superintendent of the Copper company at San Pedro, is here to meet his wife.

The fall crop of wool from Bullock & Norwo's flock of sheep on their ranch in the Swedish mountains, arrived this morning and was sold to H. M. Huson & Co., they being the highest bidders. There were sixty nine sacks, averaging 25 pounds to the sack.

The court discharged the United States' jury for the term, and the grand jury made the following report:

In the District Court for the Second Judicial District, Territory of New Mexico:
The Honorable William D. Lee, Presiding Judge of said Court.

We specifically report to you that we have found no evidence to sustain the charge that the man who perpetrated the joke has cost him some thing like $10,000.

We have endeavored to investigate fairly and impartially all cases of offenses against the laws of the United States presented to us or which came to our knowledge through individual members of our body, and we have found indications in such cases as we have thought the maximum warranted and in a number of cases we have declined to indict. These indictments for various offenses which we have investigated, viz., violations of the Indians Act and of the postal laws, and the selling of liquor to Indians, found by us we believe to be fully warranted by the testimony given before us.

We have also reported to your Honor that we have made a series of investigations of the laws of the State of New Mexico, and we have found no evidence to sustain the charge that the man who perpetrated the joke has cost him some thing like $10,000.

The funeral of the adopted infant of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Lutz occurred from the family residence south of El Paso Saturday afternoon, and was largely attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Lutz were very much attached to the previous baby and they desire THE CITIZEN to thank those of our citizens who offered their sympathy.

East Hirsch, who represents the whole east nation, Ruthfield Bros. & Co., Los Angeles, the Rocky Mountain outfit, and has had a long trade for his horses, is coming the commercial tourist to the city today. He will walk the city today, but in a short time be well returning, having with him the latest designs in saddle goods.

One of the most interesting features of the week was the arrival of the Indian delegation from the Southwest, who are here to attend the annual meeting of the National Congress of Indians, to be held in the city Saturday.
